Baltimore, Md., (August 31, 2015) — The Daily Record has named Ronald Attman, Acme Paper & Supply Company, as one of Maryland's 2015 Most Admired CEOs.

The Daily Record created the Most Admired CEOs awards program to recognize talented business CEOs and nonprofit executive directors throughout Maryland for their leadership and professionalism. The winners are selected based on their leadership and vision; competitiveness and innovation; community leadership and service; financial performance and growth; corporate leadership and board service; and nonprofit involvement.

Applications must include letters of recommendation from current staff and at least one letter from a nonprofit or board on which the CEO serves. Winners are selected by a panel of business and legal professionals and a representative of The Daily Record. A listing of the winners is below.

"Leadership matters to our economy and to the quality of our day-to-day lives," said Suzanne Fischer-Huettner, publisher of The Daily Record. "The Most Admired CEOs set the example for others to follow. They demonstrate leadership through their integrity, values, vision and commitment to excellence. The Daily Record is pleased to honor them."

The 2015 Most Admired CEOs will be honored Sept. 17 at a dinner starting at 5:30 p.m. at the BWI Hilton, 1739 West Nursery Road in Linthicum Heights. Winners will be profiled in a special magazine that will be inserted into the Sept. 18 issue of The Daily Record and available online at www.TheDailyRecord.com.

Table sponsors of The Daily Record's 2015 Most Admired CEOs include Epsilon Registration and VPC, Inc.
