

Acme in the News: Acme Paper Executive Recognized with SmartCEO Circle of Excellence Award

Baltimore SmartCEO, a regional publication specifically designed to deliver innovative ideas, guiding advice and forward-thinking insight about the daily challenges of running a “growing company,” has named Vice President of Acme Paper, Steven Attman, a recipient of its Circle of Excellence Award.

Craig Burris, publisher at SmartCEO magazine stated, “Circle of Excellence winners are not only selected and celebrated for their significant business accomplishments, but for demonstrating the ability to successfully identify and hone their competitive advantage in the marketplace. Through their leadership and vision, the Circle of Excellence winners have found ways to uniquely benefit their businesses and their communities. SmartCEO is honored to recognize Steven Attman as one of Greater Baltimore’s standout leaders.”

Ten executives in the Greater Baltimore area were recognized at the Circle of Excellence Gala in May. Steven won in the Family Business category.

SmartCEO believes that a growing company is determined by the spirit, drive and dynamics of a company's owners and managers, rather than by the size of its building, the number of its employees, or its sales volume. Each month more than 45,000 business leaders in the Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington metropolitan markets turn to the pages of SmartCEO for features, case-study advice and trend analysis, all with a uniquely local flavor.
